

Carlo PIROLA_CV

Carlo Pirola works as Associate Professor in the field of Chemical Plants in the Chemistry Department of the University of Milano. Their research topics are Separations in chemical processes (distillation, absorption in particular, fluid phase equilibria); Heterogeneous catalysis in batch and continuous reactors for biofuel and chemical productions; photocatalytic purification of air and water; modeling and simulation of chemical processes.